About This Course

Fashion can be viewed as a form of storytelling through self-expression, using clothes, footwear and accessories. The fashion industry encourages creative thinking, experimentation, and making statements.

The fashion industry is huge and consists of the brands you see on the high street and internet, to the glamorous and competitive world of designer fashion.

There are many careers within fashion including fashion design, tailoring, costume, textile design, buying and retail, marketing, fashion illustration and fashion photography/film.

In this growing sector, there are opportunities to work with large and small companies and to work freelance. Careers in this subject area vary and value a range of skills from garment-making and working with fabrics, to digital design, managerial and marketing skills.

Our practical, hands-on courses encourage creative thinking and problem solving through the application of fashion-based skills, knowledge and technical understanding.

What Will I Study?

You will learn the practical and creative skills needed to design and make garments, including pattern-cutting, garment construction, print-making and moulage. Project briefs will set challenging and exciting scenarios that will involve researching, mood-boarding, drawing, designing, sampling and garment development and making.

Workshop sessions will enable you to build skills in areas such as sewing, knitting, printmaking, textiles, digital illustration and design skills. You will explore sustainability and zero waste processes, supporting the move towards a more sustainable fashion industry. Researching into audience trends and mood-boarding will be a key aspect of developing your ideas and taking creative risks. You will identify your interests within the fashion industry and develop your skills and a portfolio of samples and garments to ultimately forge a career in fashion.

Our courses are 100% coursework based.

The Level 2 Diploma in Art, Fashion and Graphics is a practical and experimental course that will provide you with the skills and experience to progress onto your chosen specialism of Art and Design, Fashion or Graphic Design at Level 3.

The Level 3 Diploma in Creative Practice: Art, Design and Communication (Fashion) is a 2 year course designed to build a wide range of skills before encouraging you to specialise in your chosen area of Fashion. The first year will provide an opportunity to build skills and knowledge in a range of areas including fashion, design and garment making, fashion marketing, fashion illustration, textiles and fashion photography/film. You will learn creative and technical skills that will develop your understanding and application of visual language.

The second year will encourage you to specialise in a particular discipline and to further develop your skills and knowledge in this area, building a dynamic and focused portfolio of fashion design.

The Level 3/4 Foundation Diploma in Art and Design will challenge you to push your creative boundaries and develop your creativity. With a focus on problem-solving, idea generation and critical thinking; you'll be asked to put aside your preconceptions and take risks outside your comfort zone. Drawing will underpin your studies as you gain a valuable introduction to a wide range of creative disciplines, allowing you to experiment before specialising in your chosen area. As the course progresses you will focus on developing specialist skills to apply to your chosen creative-based higher education course.
